
PUNTA CANA

Dominican Republic
Has it all

Welcome to Punta Cana

The sophisticated East Coast of Dominican Republic attracts vacationers from around the world who come to explore and savor the luxuries of Punta Cana. Nestled across 100 miles (160 kilometers) of the world's top beaches lapped by turquoise waters and dotted with swaying palm trees, Punta Cana is Dominican Republic's most lavish and popular destination.

Your inspiration begins at touchdown, where the picture-perfect coastline beckons with a seemingly endless strip of frost-white sand shelving into reef-protected lagoons of irresistible peacock blues and greens. These silvery sands stretch virtually unbroken for 40 miles (64 kilometers) and are the reason for Dominican Republic's astonishing assemblage of all-inclusive resorts and convention centers.

Punta Cana's beaches and all-inclusive resorts may be its biggest draw, but its world-renowned golf courses and entertainment, like swimming with dolphins and zip lining through the exotic vegetation, promise to capture your imagination and refresh your soul.

To the north of Punta Cana is the equally luxe resort area of Bávaro. Together, Bávaro and Punta Cana feature Dominican Republic's largest hotel and resort infrastructure. Year after year, this region, where the Atlantic meets the Caribbean Sea, have been the venue for international fishing competitions and have also become the number one golf destination in the Caribbean, among the top in the world.

The following guide to Punta Cana includes descriptions of the amazing attractions, golf courses, beaches and more that await you.

INLAND SAFARIS – Jeep, truck and 8-wheel military truck in-country safari tours are offered at all resort hotels. These high vehicles take you inland across rivers and rough terrain using one of several routes, usually traveling through jungle terrain and sugar cane plantations, stopping for a refreshing swim in a river or at an unspoiled beach; enjoying a Dominican food buffet, listening to typical “perico ripiao” music, visiting a small village with a stopover at the local “colmado” (grocery store), and making an inside peek into a country home for a cup of home-brewed coffee.

OFF-ROADING ADVENTURES – Journey off-the-beaten-path with an adventurous monster truck safari tour where you will experience the diversity and beauty of the Dominican countryside in an unconventional way. Tour participants will fly across waves as they drive their boat along the beaches of Bávaro and end at a snorkeling platform where they can dive into crystalline waters to see coral, fish and sea life. Snorkeling equipment is provided in selected areas. This excursion is available from Bávaro Splash and Scuba and it combines snorkeling and scuba diving.

BEACH BUGGY & QUAD ADVENTURES – Macao beach territory, to the north of most Punta Cana resorts, is chosen for the many beach buggy, quad adventure (4-wheel ATV motorbikes) and other off-road excursions that put the tourist behind the wheel.
